DRAMA | 16 EPISODES | 2019

SMBAT, the oldest son of the Alimyan family, has been living and working in Moscow for quite a while now – from the moment he and his father, the wealthy businessman MARKOS ALIMYAN, clashed over his decision to marry a Russian woman, he had left his family home and never once looked back.

Until one day, grave news of his father's declining health reach him, forcing him to return to Armenia.

The final farewell he had planned to give his father is soured by Markos' last will – Smbat is to be the main heir to his father's fortunes on one condition: he has to divorce his Russian wife.

Markos' second son, MICHAEL, is a reckless wastrel – his father has long abandoned any hope for him – Michael, in turn, has grown increasingly more distant from his family. Michael also has a condition set before him if he is to receive anything from his father's will – he has to get married.

The Alimyans' daughter MARTHA, as well as her husband ISAHAK, want to have their own share of the inheritance as well. Isahak persuades Michael to create a counterfeit last will that will see them as the main successors to Markos' fortunes.

The fight over the inheritance brings out the worst in the members of the Alimyan family – greed, envy and betrayal tear off their masks of pleasantry and kindness and reveal unforgiving enmity and ruthlessness.

ANDREAS ELIZBAROV is a wealthy man who lives a peaceful life with his wife and children. It all changes when the son of his dead friend, ARTASHES OTARYAN, appears on his doorstep with one goal in mind – to unveil the mysteries surrounding his father's death and the loss of their family fortune.

Elizbarov's younger daughter MARGARET, a lawyer, decides to help Artashes in his quest, blissfully unaware that their search for the culprit will inevitably lead them to her father.

The Elizbarov family is rocked by these developments. The eldest son, BAGRAT, commits himself to defending his family; the younger son, SUREN, who leads a hedonistic lifestyle in opposition to his father's wishes, becomes Artashes' sworn enemy. Even Artashes' uncle is involved in covering up the Elizbarov conspiracy to save his skin.

Margaret's older sister ROSALIE falls in love with Artashes and struggles to gain his attention. Artashes, however, has fallen in love with Margaret, making the younger Elizbarov daughter face the eternal choice between love and her family's honour.

THE MECHANICS OF HAPPINESS

The mechanics of achieving happiness are complex and intricate.

LILIT is a charming woman who, after a divorce, is raising her three children all by herself. As a gifted interior designer, she manages to take care of her whole family as a single mother while working full-time and solving complex problems. Often, her work is demanding – her boss even more so, as he keeps reprimanding her for perceived shortcomings and pressuring her into becoming his mistress.

A high-rise is being built next to Lilit's father's house – and despite the fact that she was promised an apartment in the building, she never received it.

Lilit turns to a lawyer who wants not only to win her lawsuit, but also her heart in the process. In a bid to help her out, the lawyer introduces Lilit to the ringleader of a famous gang.

In the middle of all this chaos, Lilit meets ROUBEN – a strait-laced and principled architect who turns Lilit's world on its head. Rouben's selflessness and kindness changes Lilit's attitude towards men. Together, they set out to fight against the injustices around them.

THRILLER | 32 EPISODES | 2019

David and Lily lost their parents when they were very young. They were brought up by their selfless aunt Sarah, who made sure the children lacked for nothing. Lily grew up to be a young woman of firm character, strong and self-reliant – despite her suffering from diabetes, she is a capable tomboy who prefers video games to fancy dresses.

To help out his aunt and younger sister, David takes on a daytime job as a car mechanic. What his family does not know, however, is that when the night comes, David earns money by engaging in an illegal underground fighting ring. He has gained his "street cred" through Rob, a leader of a local gang. Despite Rob's criminal background, he has much more depth and insight than is typical for a street thug and takes immediate sympathy to the struggling young man.

David's beacon in all of this is Yeva, a girl who works at a pet shop. He longs to quit the streets and take her out on a simple date – and yet, the roots that connect him to the dark side of the city have become so deeply entrenched that breaking out of them will be no simple task.

DRAMA | 16 EPISODES | 2019

THE CLASS OF 10B has always been difficult for the teachers. The class reaches a new low when the Chemistry teacher enters their classroom one day only to discover five boys and a girl dancing fervently, with the girl, MARY, being half-naked. The story of this incident echoes throughout the school corridors, becoming the favorite topic of gossip among pupils and teachers alike.

The school administration, eager to cover up the incident and minimize the damages the story might cause to the school's reputation, decides to dissolve the class, indifferent to the emotional turmoil the teenagers are facing.

At this tumultuous point in the school's history, VAHAN MAMYAN is hired as a Literature teacher. When given supervision over the scandalous class of 10B, Mamyan decides that instead of being a conventional teacher, he will become a mentor and confidant for the children facing the most complicated period in their lives.
